WELCOME TO DUBROVNIK

Southern Croatia is a treasure trove of adventures, spanning from towering historic walls to vineyards, warm seas, and starry skies. This region, home to the mythical Greek hero Odysseus, the renowned explorer Marco Polo, and a deeply rich culture, invites you to lose yourself in its dazzling landscapes, captivating legends, and breathtaking beauty.

Dubrovnik, a jewel that enchants all who visit, is undoubtedly one of the most stunning cities in the world, where indescribable beauty merges with a unique spiritual and human grandeur. The medieval walls, stretching 1,940 meters, bear witness to the fight for the freedom of its people and immerse you in historic events like the Dubrovnik Summer Festival or the legendary Iron Throne from Game of Thrones.

In its Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, you can shake the hand of its patron Saint Blaise, who, through his presence, connects you to a vibrant history depicted in the artworks adorning the city. Three of the five most emblematic forts—Minčeta, Bokar, and St. John—are integrated into the walls, while Lovrijenac and Revelin hold their own mysteries.

Stroll along Stradun, the main street, visit monuments such as the Sponza Palace and the Church of St. Blaise, and let yourself be wrapped in the eternal beauty of a city that always seems young.
